SINGLE VINEYARD
GRAN RESERVA

Malbec
AGRELO - ARGENTINA

93+ points ('07), The Wine Advocate: "The 2007 Malbec Gran Reserva was sourced from a single 82-year-old estate vineyard that spent 16 months in new French oak. It is a denser, richer, more structured version of the Reserva that will benefit from another 4-5 years of cellaring and will provide prime drinking from 2015 to 2022."

LAMADRID MATILDE

94 points, Wine Advocate:

"The flagship 2007 Malbec Matilde was sourced from the same estate vineyard as the Gran Reserva, but from a particular parcel, with aging for 24 months in new French oak. This loaded effort displays more obvious (but well-integrated) oak, soaring aromas of black cherry, black raspberry, and exotic spices, full body, and a plush, velvety palate feel..."

"This dark, aromatic red displays lovely graphite, spice and floral notes leading to mixed flavors of ripe, creamy black and red berries, as hints of smoke follow through to a grippy, yet floral, finish." ('08)

LAMADRID Bonarda Reserva

91 points!

-Robert Parker's Wine Advocate ('08 & '09)

"Notions of damp earth, brier, spice box, leather, plum, and mulberry set the stage for a savory, flavorful, impeccably balanced Bonarda that over-delivers in a big way." ('09)
