

VERUM

Alto Valle del Río Negro, Patagonia

Verum: “True” Patagonia

Verum (Bodega Del Rio Elorza) is a boutique, family winery with 45 acres of high-density vineyards in the Alto Valle del Río Negro, Patagonia. The winemakers are internationally renowned Hans Vinding-Diers and the local Agustín Lombroni (a Decanter “Rising Star”). Their experience and understanding of this unique Patagonian terroir, along with Marcelo Casazza's precise vineyard management, impart great personality to the wines. Verum is a shining example of the awesome winemaking potential in Patagonia.

Wine Enthusiast recommended the winery and highlighted it as Rio Negro vanguard; Wine Spectator said: “In addition to Malbec, they are also bottling Merlot, Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, all of them very good.”

Verum Chardonnay

92 points ('15), James Suckling; 90 points ('15), Wine Spectator:
“An elegant and slightly aromatic white, with vibrant flavors of spiced apple, white cherry and baked pear. Piecrust notes linger on the refined and well-structured finish. Drink now through 2020.”
89 points ('17), Wine Advocate.

Verum Pinot Noir

93 points ('17), Decanter:
“Made with 50% whole bunches, from the 777 clone of Pinot Noir, this wine is very delicately oaked, allowing the subtle, spicy, fresh tobacco and raspberry notes to have free rein. One of Patagonia’s best.”
90 points ('15), Tim Atkin MW; 90 points ('14), James Suckling.

Verum Malbec

89 pts, ('16), Wine Spectator; 92 pts ('14), James Suckling;
91 pts, Year's Best Malbec & “Best Buy”, Wine & Spirits ('15):
“...violets, the cherry flavors, the soft, seductive flavors that go on and on. It's a window into the grape's success in the windy Río Negro...”

Verum Malbec Reserva

91 points ('12), Wine Enthusiast; 90 points ('16), Wine Spectator;
“Best Buy,” & a “Year's Best Malbec” ('10), Wine & Spirits:
“Blackberry and raspberry flavors blend with sweet spice in this wine from the warm, sandy soils of Río Negro... seductively ripe fruit flavors that last, rich and voluptuous.”

Verum Cabernet Franc Reserva

92 points & Editors' Choice ('13), Wine Enthusiast:
“Cherry, berry and woody aromas set up a firm, wide palate with lightly herbal, leafy flavors of berry fruits and chocolate. Cocoa dust and a pinch of saltiness are noted on a full finish.”
