

Manotsuru "Maho" Daiginjo

Gold Medals at the National Sake Competition (2001-2006; 2008; 2013-2014)
and at the International Wine Challenge (2007 & 2015).

This perennial gold medal winning Daiginjo has clean and fresh aromas, with notes of anise. It doesn't get any better than this. Best served chilled.
It goes well with rich dishes... actually, drink this one by itself and realize this may be the only opportunity to enjoy this extremely rare, once-in-a-lifetime sake.
