PURAMUN
RESERVA
WINES OF PEPE GALANTE

After forty years making Argentine wines for the world, I decided to focus all my passion and experience on a family project. Each bottle of Puramun (indigenous word meaning harvest and search) expresses our admiration for the Uco Valley, a place that surprises with its diversity of soil, climate, and thermal amplitud.

For this 2013 Malbec we hand-picked grapes from Eugenio Bustos, Campo de los Andes, and Chacayes, resulting in a wine with an intense violet color and lush flavors of spice, red fruits, and blackberries. The body is elegant with round tannins, and the wine saw 12 months in French oak barrels.

We invite you to discover in each bottle of Puramun the result of this passionate and endless search.
