CHILE CHICO ~ PATAGONIA

Chile Chico, Patagonia

THE SOUTHERNMOST WINERY IN THE WORLD

At 46.3° South, under the watchful gaze of Cerro Castillo and constantly swept by the Patagonian winds, lies the southernmost vineyard in the world. An extreme viticulture that only a challenging spirit dares to explore. There, the untamed inhabitants of Patagonia encountered the "Kosten," the wind that erodes mountains and ripples the waters of Lake General Carrera. More than a force of nature, it is a protagonist in its own right, becoming the greatest challenge for agriculture in the region. Inspired by its strength and majesty, these wines from Chile Chico carry with them the infinite essence of the Patagonian wind.

Kosten Chardonnay

On the nose, it reveals subtle notes of almond skin and hazelnuts, with delicate hints of beeswax. The palate offers elevated freshness, great vitality, and vibrant acidity - characteristics of a very cold climate that further enhance its unique character.

Kosten Pinot Noir

A deep ruby red color with violet hues. Its pristine nose evokes boysenberry and sour cherry. The palate is enriched with notes of pomegranate, red currant, and a finely sculpted acidity.

Kosten Sauvignon Blanc

Elegant, with great aromatic purity and vibrancy. The palate displays crisp acidity that awakens the taste buds with delightful notes of elderflower and citrus, along with an impressive density that provides great persistence.
